

Sai Wan Meow

October 2019 to November 2020

The programme aroused secondary students' interests towards their neighbourhood through a series of events including docent tour and traditional paper craft workshops. Traditional paper cat models were created by the students with reference to the cats in old Sai Wan district and showcased in a roving exhibition.

