

Fusion of Modern & Traditional Community Culture in Sham Shui Po

May 2017 to February 2018

A group of young people designed and published a cultural map in print and mobile app versions to introduce the landmarks and local shops in Sham Shui Po. The people living in the subdivided units also underwent docent training so as to share their living conditions when the docent tour participants visited their subdivided units.

