

耆藝互享

November 2017 to May 2018

A group of elderly people from Shau Kei Wan rehearsed percussion intensively and learned to make paper clay handicrafts in order to showcase their performance and give away handmade souvenirs during community visits. Through arts the aged volunteers spread the joy and positivism to the needy including the elderly recluses and those lived in elderly care home in the neighbourhood.

Some photos are provided by the presenter

Presented by Women's Welfare Club Western District Hong Kong
Kwan Kai Ming Memorial Chung Hok Elderly Centre