

The Investigation of Local Literature and Creative Writing Workshop

October 2013 to July 2014

A local literature programme for the secondary school students in San Po Kong and its neighbouring districts. The participants explored San Po Kong through the site-specific literary materials and were inspired to create local literature for their community.

