

Art Culture In The City

April 2013 to June 2014

A series of 74 cultural walks led by the local residents and 12 workshops on the traditional businesses in the Central & Western District have been organised. Two issues of community cultural magazine have been published to document the changes and development of the Central & Western District.

