

Street Dance Carnival 2014-2015

October 2014 to May 2015

A street dance programme was designed for the young people recruited via NGOs in the old districts. The intensive dance training included art therapy, master classes and dance camp. The programme encouraged the young people to understand their strengths and limitations, to build self-confidence, and to share their learning results in the community.

Some photos are provided by the presenter

Presented by The Autistic Genius