

Puppet Made Easy in Central and Western District

March 2015

A guided appreciation of a performance by the Israeli group “PuppetCinema” was organised for participants recruited via the NGOs in the Central & Western District followed by a series of puppetry workshops. They were inspired to create puppet characters using the materials and ingredients that were found in the local community. The participants shared their puppet performance in the finale showcase.

